Dear Ben, Leela and Martin,

I was once a chef, but because I did ⁷knot ⁸no my homophones properly, got hare confused with hair, and ⁹maid hair soup instead of hare soup. Or should that be hare soup instead of hair soup? Anyway, once this klutzymatosis started, I became organized instead of disorganized and it seemed to make me the opposite from ¹⁰watt I was. I could do anything. In the morning, I could ¹¹here the alarm, get up at the ¹²write ¹³our, get to work on time and keep a regular job. It ¹⁴maid me feel much better. I did ¹⁵knot ¹⁶waist my time oversleeping anymore. ¹⁷'Pour Tim' I used ¹⁸two think ¹⁹two myself, 'Your jobs usually last only about ²⁰won ²¹weak.' When I caught klutzymatosis, I was ²²threw the door in a flash, arriving earlier ²³two work than anyone else. That's why I liked it and did ²⁴knot want it to stop.

Nevertheless, ²⁵watt ²⁶wood the world ²⁷bee like if we couldn't ²⁸bee ourselves? I ²⁹knead to try some strategies ³⁰two become better organized. However, ³¹weather the pans are neatly stacked in my kitchen cupboard or ³²knot, or ³³weather I have the correct coloured ³⁴pears of socks or ³⁵knot, people should like me for who I am and focus on the good qualities I have. That goes for anyone for that matter.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Tym
